Observations:

In 1895, M1 to M4, the Justice Makey wrote groom's and bride's name as his own, with the same ending. The M4 gives Antoni's name written by himself. He has difficulties to write as seen in his first name Antoni, but it's clear his real name starts with "Mur" and ends with "ki".

In May 1907, B1 to B4, the midwife is familiar with Lithuanian writing.

In October 1907, D1 to D4, the MD writes names according to his ears. That means Antoni spells his name with "i" at the end (the ending -ski is masculine, the ending -ska is feminine), like in the initial signature from 1895.
